Seniors

Karen Ohler
Brenda Petty

The members of the Class of 1974 began their first year at Mansfield Senior High with the election of officers. Brenda Petty was elected president; she was assisted by Karen Bronson, vice-president; Vanessa Robinson, Secretary; and Tony Greene, treasurer. Miss Renate Papenhausen and Mr. David Bigham were selected as advisors for the class. In March the class sponsored a student-faculty basketball game to raise funds, and in May they chose class rings.

Homecoming was the major activity of the junior year. Shawn Bonecutter was elected queen for "Once in Her Life", and Marietta Brookins, Brenda Ewers, Joyce Fulton, and Brenda Petty made up her court. Karen Bronson was the only officer to remain in office. Others elected were Henry Seiler, president; Donna Daniels, secretary; and Cliff Jones, treasurer.

After an absence of one year, Varsity Varieties returned in November as a successful class project. "Where Are We?" was the theme of the production. The other highlights of the year were the Senior Prom held at the Mansfield Leland Hotel and, of course, Class Day and Commencement. Scott Gilbert took over as president of the class and Diane Smith was elected treasurer at the end of the junior year. Mr. Doug Pugh replaced Mr. Bigham, who left Senior High, as class advisor.

A) Members of the Senior Class Executive Committee are: Seated: P. Gross, C. White, B. Wagaman, D. White, B. Miller, K. Bronson. Standing: C. Smith, D. Smith, D. Daniels, E. James, J. Long, S. Gilbert. B) Miss Papenhausen, three year advisor, shares her views with her class. C) Class advisor Mr. Pugh discusses graduation announcements with the representative from Josten's.

Class of 1975 Maintains Enthusiasm

The Class of 1975 continued to produce the enthusiasm that was so evident during their sophomore year. Since their money making projects last year were so successful, the financial situation was not the major issue this year.

Because Homecoming was the major project, juniors took time to make it a little different and enjoyed success. Jackie Jones was elected queen, while Jackie Atkins, Ellen Finnerty, JoAnn Keeler, and Betsy Warga made up her court. The theme chosen for the assembly and dance was "Who's That Lady?"

Community projects such as visiting nursing homes and helping with the Xenia Fund rated high on the Junior Class agenda. At the end of the year producers and directors were chosen to get an early start of on Varsity Varieties.

A) Advisor Mr. Derr tells juniors to listen attentively to the speeches before casting their votes for Junior officers
B) No matter what there is to do, Mr. Marchant can always find time for a game of chess when a student challenges him. C) Members of the Junior Class Executive Committee are: Row 1: P. Spillman, B. Cook, S. Johnson, C. Murphy, D. Carroll, L. Fletcher, C. Partin, D. Abbot, A. Stahlheber M. Miller, B. Clark, N. Wolf. Row 2: N. VanRiper, D. Risner, P. Stuht, D. Bogner, R. # Class of 1976 Begins Successful High School Career

Sophomores entered Mansfield Senior High with a feeling of enthusiasm and a determination that the Class of 1976 would be the "best yet". Students got together early in the year to elect officers and get a start. Robert Avery was chosen to lead the class, while Ike Robinson, Liz Woods, and Mary McGraw were elected as vice-president, treasurer, and secretary, respectively. Miss Michele Shafer and Mr. Tom Campbell were asked to serve as advisors to the class.

In the finance department, bake sales once again proved popular. Class members baked and sold their goods twice this year at school and then branched out into their neighborhoods with a candy sale. Popular with the whole student body was a student-faculty volleyball game held as a paid assembly. Sophomores concluded their year by choosing their class rings, which will be ordered and delivered in the Fall.

A) Mr. Campbell not only advises the class and teaches English, but coaches football as well. B) Class advisor Miss Shafer's ability has helped win recognition for her students even at the state level. C & D) Class members discuss plans for an upcoming project at an Executive Committee meeting.

Tygers Take Advantage of Speed and Passing Skills

The Tygers, headed by new head coach Sam Miller, started the season off with a loss to Ashland, but jumped right back by defeating Malabar, Madison, and Lorain Senior. Their winning streak disappeared through the next few games, but they came back with a final victory over Marion. The 4-6 season proved to be the best since 1962.

Nick Roman of the Cleveland Browns was guest speaker at the banquet held at the conclusion of the season. Awards went to Dave Bishop, Jimo Adams Award; Charlie White, Star Award, third year letter, and Best Defensive Lineman; Robert Duckworth, Best Defensive Back; Steve Winbigler, Best Offensive Lineman; Sam Ware, Best Offensive Back; and Barry Lawrence, True Grit Award.

A) Senior High cheerleaders lead the fans in cheering for the Tygers. B) Defensive End Tim Adamescu leads the Tyger pursuit in bringing down an Admiral King runner. C) Tom Massa raises his arm in praise of another Tyger tally. D) Quarterback Barry Lawrence prepares to hand off, as the offensive line forces a hole in a Marion Harding defense. E) Coach Pierce gives Junior Linebacker Paul Petrella vital instructions. F) Tyger players are Row 1: C. Gump, K. Webb, A. Vandayburg, T. Adamescu, D. Bishop, C. White, M. Moga, T. Fuqua, S. Ware, R. Duckworth. Row 2: M. Paul, P. Petrella, G. Knackstedt, T. Massa, S. Gilbert, S. Hardin, V. Hafford, T. Taylor, T. Feagin, K. Shephard, C. Leech. Row 3: S. Morris, S. Winbigler, B. Ward. Row 5: E. Small, J. Bibler, D. Mathews, F. Brownlee, C. Shepard, T. Shoulders. Row 6: B. Garverick, J. Berloch, T. Zediker, J. Armstrong, T. Jessop.

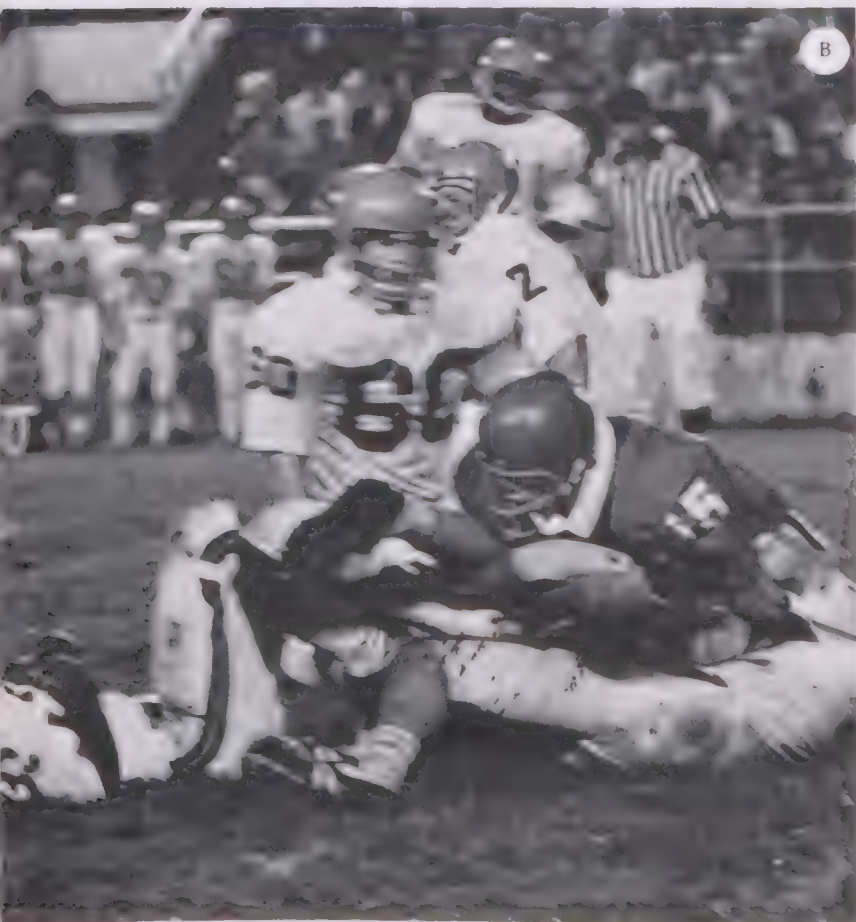

Tygers Show Determination in Tough League

A) Barry Lawrence gains big yardage on Quarterback Keeper. B) Junior tackle Greg Knackstedt crunches his Malabar victim. C) Coach Sam Miller thinks of the next play to put into gear. D) Ed Williams gains yardage for the fighting Tygers. E) Senior Tim Adamescu makes the first big "breakthrough" of the game. F) The Tiger Offensive line listens intently to the cadence call of Barry Lawrence

Reserve Squad Gains Valuable Experience

The reserve squad consisted of both reserve and sophomore players this year, since not enough sophomores went out for football to make up a separate team. They played nine rough opponents, winning only three of the games. Nevertheless, team members showed a lot of spirit and gained valuable experience for next season. Coaches Phil Horvath and Tom Campbell worked with the Tyger Reserves this year.

A) Reserve quarterback Bob Lehnhart fires a pass over the on-rushing Fremont defenders. B) Coach Horvath receives plays from the press box during the game. C) Kenny Shepard attempts a shoestring tackle while his fellow teammates pursue for the kill. D) Tyger Johnny Owens breaks for a fifteen gainer against the baffled Fremont defense. E) Bob Lehnhart puts the final touch on a Fremont runner.

"Who's That Lady?"

"WHO'S THAT LADY" was selected as the 1973-74 Homecoming Theme. The Mistress and Master of Ceremonies were Nina McCruter and Doug Finlayson.

Tradition was changed when this year's Homecoming assembly was held in the gym, rather than the auditorium.

Making her last appearance, Miss Shawn Bonecutter, escorted by Mr. Tim Adamescu, presented the crown to Queen Jackie Jones. Charlie White and Sam Ware then presented Queen Jackie with the game football.

Our guest speaker for this year was the sports caster of WMAN Radio, Mr. Mike Green.

A) Queen Jackie Jones and Mr. Tom Taylor pose for a formal portrait. B) Mistress and Master of Ceremonies, Nina McCruter and Doug Finlayson, announce the names of the court. C) Charlie White and Sam Ware present the game football. D) The queen and her court show their concern for our school. E) Mr. Mike Green wishes the team the best of luck in their game. F) Stage Band performs for the queen and her court. G) Miss Shawn Bonecutter presents Queen Jackie with her crown. H) Posing for a formal picture are: Don Tolle, Betsy Warga, Rodney Feagin, Jackie Atkins, Tom Taylor, Queen Jackie Jones, Karl Kirst, Ellen Finnerty, Steve Fryrear, Jo Ann Keeler. Standing in front are Junior Class President Lesia Fletcher and Master and Mistress of Ceremonies Doug Finlayson and Nina McCruter.

Harriers Have 3 and 3 Season

The cross country team under Coach Al Ward finished their season with a three and three dual meet record. The meets were held at Therm-O-Disc Park. At the end of the season awards were given to Woody Hightower, Most Valuable; Avery Gani, Captain; and Billy Selmon and Bill Harkins, Most Improved. The team will have six returning lettermen next year.

A) Senior High cross country team races for position at the sound of the gun. B) Senior Avery Gani grimaces with pain as he stretches into the final mile. C) Billy Selmon and Woody Hightower take a breather after their grueling race. D) Senior High Harriers move to front position at the start of the race. E) Coach Al Ward seems to be in a quiet mood before the Tygers have their meet with Elgin. F) Senior Mike Bonace races to the finish. G) Tyger Harriers are Row 1: G. Hightower, R. Browning, D. Dotson, B. Selmon. Row 2: J. Martin, A. Gani, B. Harkins.

Reserves Show Great Promise

The Tyger Cubs showed outstanding ballmanship as they finished their season with a 13-5 record. Exhibiting great poise and sportsmanship, the cubs will be a strong base for next year's team.

Tygers Have Disappointing Season

The 1973-74 season was a losing one for the tankers. Throughout the season the total of ten swimmers couldn't muster a win, but they did show some depth and ability. Led by senior Jim Widders, the team participated in the Mike Gregory relays and hosted the Buckeye Conference meet. Next year the tankers will have eight returning lettermen and a hope for a good group of incoming sophomores.

At the awards banquet Jim Widders took most valuable swimmer award, while Herb Cline took most improved. A new award this year for outstanding sophomore went to Brian Garverick.

A) Tanker Steve Meckling dives off the block during a relay. B) Tygerettes Barb Clark and Ginny Ott check times. C) Coach Craig Brown gets ready for the next meet. D) Tyger tankers include: Row 1: B. Jackson, J. Hoffer, S. Meckling, J. Widders, M. Conn, D. Wunderlin Row 2: K. Beeman, K. Wunderlin, B. Garverick, H. Cline. E) Junior Dave Wunderlin dives from the block at the Buckeye Conference Meet F) Senior Jim Widders in lane four gets ready for the 200 IM. G) The exhausting 100 yard breaststroke is a specialty for sophomore Ken Beeman. H) Junior diver Jeff Hoffer performs an inward dive against Marion. I) Coach Brown encourages swimmers during a break in the Buckeye Conference meet

Tyger Matmen Prove Themselves

This year's Tyger grapplers once again had a 6-1 season. They took first place in the J.C. Gorman Tournament and second place in both the Northwest Tournament and in the sectionals. Gary Hightower, Ben Williams, and Charles Williams all went to the state tournament this year to become Northwest District champions.

Receiving awards were Bill Selmon, most improved; Gary Hightower, outstanding sophomore; Ben Williams, outstanding junior; and Charles Williams, most takedowns and most valuable.

Presiding as queen of the Gorman Tournament was Cindy Evans, escorted by Tim Adamescu. Her court included Lee Anne Walker, escorted by Vic Weber; Lizzie Petty, escorted by Gary Feagin; Bonnie Miller, escorted by Allan Vandayburg; and Vanessa Robinson, escorted by Geron Tate.

A) Queen Cindy Evans and her court pay close attention to the matches. B) Junior Paul Petrella gets a strong hold on his opponent. C) Senior Jim Cushing prepares his attack. D) Tyger wrestlers are: Row 1: N. Cushing, B. Williams, B. Black, L. Tate, G. Hightower, C. Williams, B. Selmon. Row 2: D. Fox, P. Petrella, R. Ward, T. Shiltz, G. Knackstedt, L. Taylor. E) Coach Bill Flanegan has many thoughts in his mind as he watches one of his wrestlers compete. F) Bill Harkins shows great strain as he wrestles an opponent. G) Lloyd Tate puts the punishing squeeze on his opponent.

The Tyger trackmen placed fifth in the Huron Relays, eleventh in the Mansfield Relays, third in the five way meet, fourth in the Sandusky Relays, sixth in the Marion Night Relays, fourth in sectionals, sixth in district, and second in the Galion Invitational.

Stan Tillman qualified for the state track meet in the 180 low hurdles while Sam Ware, Cliff Jones, Vince Hafford, and Louis Glenn also qualified for the 880 relay team.

The Tygers are expected to have a good season next year with the depth that they have now.

A) An exhausted Mike Bonace gets timed
B) Runner Bill Harkins comes into the finish
C) Senior Rick Mabry "umphs" as he begins to release the shotput. D) Distance and weight men are Row 1: B. Harkins, B. Baehrens, K. Henry, R. Crahen. Row 2: M. Paul, P. Petrella, D. Mabry, R. An aerial photograph of a coastal area. In the lower-left corner, a small boat with a white cabin and a dark hull is visible. A long, dark pier or breakwater extends from the bottom left towards the center of the frame. The water is a light, hazy blue-grey color. In the background, there are some landmasses and a long, thin structure, possibly a bridge or another pier, stretching across the upper part of the image.

Manhigan Celebrates 50th Anniversary

This year the Manhigan celebrated its 50th anniversary. Mrs. Irene Wenning, editor in 1924, came and talked to the Manhigan staff and told how the name first originated. That year they held a contest and the word Manhigan won. They took the letters "MAN" from Mansfield, "HIG" from high, and "AN" from annual.

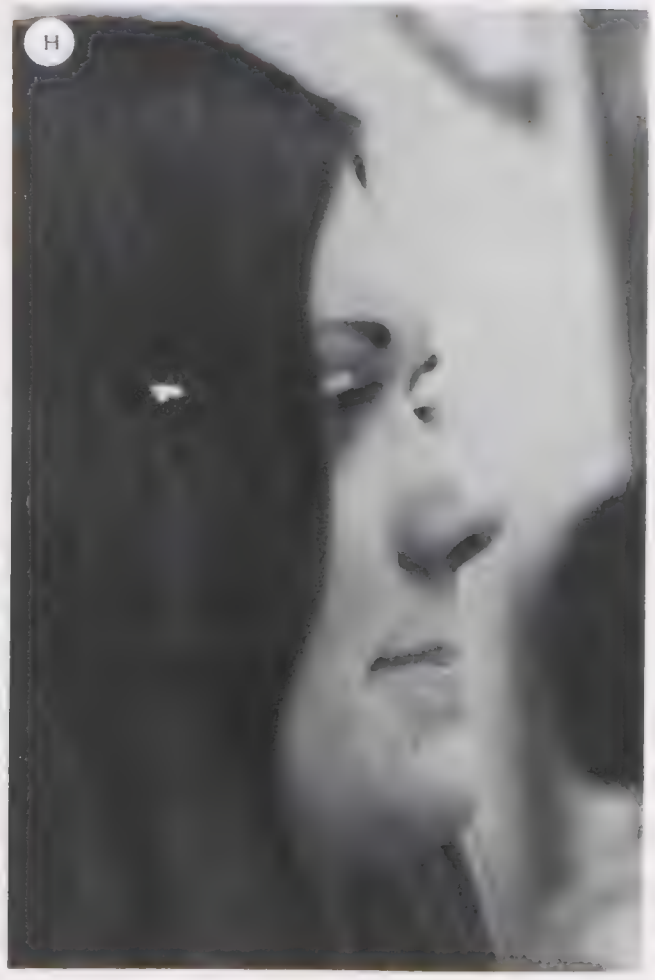

Unlike last year, students decided to bring it out in the fall. The survey taken indicated that most students liked it better when the book came out as one publication.

The 1973-74 staff was led by editor Jim vanHarlingen and Advisor Mr. David Gross. Jim was assisted by fifteen juniors and seniors. The typist this year was Diane Tittle, and the photographer was Heather Dalton, assisted by Tim Adamescu.

Hypho Distributes News Through M.H.S.

This year's Hyphonerian staff, directed by Mr. Harold Robinson produced ten issues of the school paper. The main activities of the staff consist of writing, editing and printing news and activities concerning students at Senior High.

With the help of Mr. Wayne Au the Business Staff sold advertisements and distributed the paper each month.

A) Editor Jim Davis listens patiently for new ideas. B) Santana Ramirez draws a few more cartoons to finish his design. C) News Editor Cherryl Sweet assembles pages for the upcoming deadline. D) The reporters consist of Ron Smith, Vic Weber, Bill Jackson, and Dawn Hamblin. E) Goofing around in class are Mae Chin, Cathy Taylor, and Dawn Hamblin. F) Features Editor Mae Chin proofreads one of her pages. G) Taken by surprise, Advisor Mr. Harold Robinson comments to the photographer. H) Business Staff members include

Spectrum Has Another Big Year

The Spectrum, in its fourth year of publication, is the literary magazine of MHS. The students submit poems or short stories which are judged by students and teachers. The ones that are picked are then published in the Spectrum.

The editor is Heather Dalton and the advisor is Mr. Richard Cole.

A) Members of the business staff are Mary Bright, Linda Wiedebusch, Henry Seiler, and Betsy Wolfe. B) Heather Dalton is the editor of the Spectrum. C) Preparing to pass out the 1974 Spectrums are staff members D) Larry Sqrow and Sherry Holt listen while instructions are given on where to deliver Spectrum. E) Taking care of the faculty section are Keith Christman and Kinda Kiley. F) Figuring the cost for the Spectrum are Cindy Neal and Cherene Smith. G) Heading up the Spectrum are advisor, Mr. Richard Cole; editor, Heather Dalton; and assistant editor, Pam Peters. H) Bonnie Miller and Barb White take care of the typing of the articles

Mr. Finley's DCT class stressed social and civic responsibilities. The main activity in the DCT program is to provide a skill in one of the trade and industrial areas for young people.

Mr. Thoms' DE program is to help students get jobs and learn how to cope with the problems of getting to work on time and also the experience of working in stores and offices.

Mr. Williams COE program is designed to help students who are interested in business, find part-time employment in this field. The COE activities included selling class-year necklaces and candy bars, and holding bake sales and car washes to raise money for the different activities. A spring banquet was held for the students and their employers at the Holiday Inn.

Students for Career Work

Senior and Junior BOE Preparation

The BOE program of MHS has prepared students for future office work. BOE classes held bake sales and other money making projects, had parties, and went on field trips.

Senior BOE, under the direction of Mr. Groff, took trips to Mansfield Typewriter, Data Processing, First National Bank, Motor Vehicle in Columbus, and Kemper Insurance.

Mr. Neuman's BOE Clerk-Typists visited large business offices throughout Columbus, had an outing at Cedar Point, and went canoeing and horseback riding.

Mrs. Williams' BOE Steno went on field trips, had guest speakers, and had a luncheon in the MHS Tea Room.

Students for Office Work

OWE and OWA and Nurses' Aides are work programs at MHS. The students in OWE-OWA go to school half the day; then they go to work. They get paid like any other worker. However, the major purpose for this phase of the program is to give supervised work experience and not to make money.

This program is offered to both girls and boys who have a good attitude and a desire to excell on the job.

Nurses' Aides go to the hospital for work and classes for half the day; then they return to school for their other classes for the rest of the day.

Electronics and Drafting Prepare Students

The Electronics class started out the year learning about different machines and parts. They learned how to repair televisions, radios, and other electrical appliances. They had a Christmas party, sold candy, and went on field trips to the Dayton Museum and Technical Schools. The club meetings were held every two weeks. The club entered the State Electronics contest in Columbus.

The Drafting class, better termed engineering drawing, is probably one of the most important forms of communications. It is the stepping stone to supervisory and executive positions in industry, and the mathematics and technical subjects are accredited both by technical schools and universities.

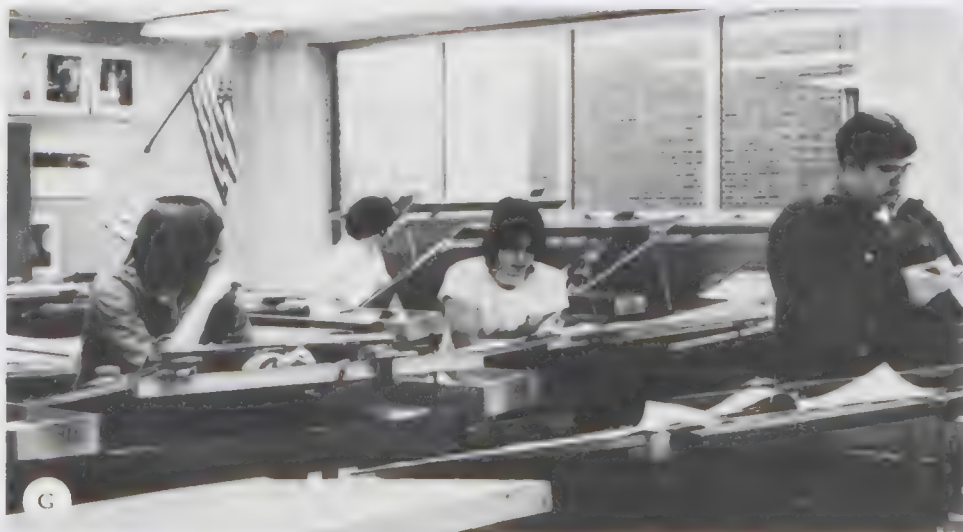

The vocational drafting group has its own club. Promotional projects are selected by the club, and the proceeds are spent on parties, trips, and dinners.

With Knowledge for Future Experience

Machine VICA, Auto VICA Light Up Their

Auto Mechanics VICA had an active year. Students held a Christmas party at the Richland Rural Life Center, sold candy to raise money, and went on field trips to various places. They spent a weekend in a state park camping. At the close of the year they held a contest for all club members, and also a banquet.

Juniors in Machine VICA were taught the different parts of machines and the general operations. Seniors did similar types of work including mathematics, drawing, and technology. They repaired the machines and learned maintenance for each one. They have taken field trips through local industries.

The purpose of these courses was to prepare students with knowledge and experiences in their chosen fields.

Year With Numerous Activities

A) Students in Mr. Harris' class discuss an important project that will be coming up. B) Members of Machine VICA are: Row 1: D. Harmon, M. Persinger, J. Mosley, K. Allen, J. Mullins, G. Lannan, J. Fowler, T. Porter, J. Bishop. Row 2: R. Browning, M. Brenne-man, A. Brown, D. Williams, T. O'Brian, K. Lawhorn, C. Wray, R. Neighbors, B. Kudrak, R. Beard. C) Members of Auto VICA are Row 1: R. Gimbel, D. See, R. Heichel, S. Schnieder, C. Mills, R. Tucker, T. Kopcial, J. Baker, J. Logan, J. Cushing, P. Underwood, J. See, N. Long, E. Smith, R. G) Student Council executive Committee members are: Row 1: D. Nabors, V. Robinson, and P. Peters. Row 2: R. Avery, D. White, B. Petty, and C. Smith. Row 3: Mr. Goode, P. Carr, J. Weber, S. Gilbert. H) Participating in Fifties Day is Kevin Arthur. I) Dressing up for Fifties Day was just one of the activities planned by Student Council. J) Everyone helped get the baskets ready for the needy families.

Pep Club and Cheerleaders Show Spirit

This year the Cheerleaders and Pep Club cheered the team on to many victories. The Pep Club officers were Carol Parr, president; Bonnie Miller, vice-president; Cathy Ellsworth, treasurer; and Carla Bell, secretary. Pep Club sold ribbons, beanies, and shakers, held a bake sale, and put on pep assemblies.

When the cheerleaders weren't busy cheering they were selling toothbrushes and had a bake sale. During the summer they went to Indiana for cheerleading camp. They learned many new cheers for the 1973-74 sports events.

A) The 1973-74 varsity football players feel the spirit of the pep assembly. B) Pep Club advisor Mr. Morrison prepares to introduce the team. C) Cheering the team on to victory at a pep assembly are members of the Pep Club. D) Pep Club Executive Committee members are: Seated: C. Parr, B. Miller, C. Bell, C. Ellsworth. Standing: D. Smith, P. Stuhrt, D. Daniels, C. Partin, L. Walker, D. Abbott, D. Smith, B. Waga. E) Varsity cheerleaders are: Front to Back: K. Bronson, J. Jones, P. Gross, B. Bartlett, P. Phegley. Sides: J. Fulton, B. Ewers, M. Brookins, L. Solomon. F) Reserve cheerleaders are: Front to Back: W. Young, C. Hood, C. Weirich, L. Lehman. Sides: L. Hull, F. Walker. G) Reserve cheerleaders give it all they've got. H) Tyger Karen Bronson waits for the decision of the referee. I) Captain Joyce Fulton listens to a pep talk.

MHS Students Are Helpful Aides

Again this year MHS students were involved in helping out in the offices. The students that worked in the various offices ran errands for the secretaries and helped with clerical work.

The library aides helped out the librarians by checking out books, doing repair work, and returning books to the shelves.

Students helping Mr. Sauder in the bookstore worked before school and at lunchtime selling supplies to the students.

A) Main office monitors include: ROW 1: P. Gross, L. Perman, K. Cardwell, D. Cervinski, P. Carr. ROW 2: D. Carto, C. Bell, C. Ellsworth, S. Gassaway, K. Thompson. ROW 3: D. Catlett, A. H) Stomping and clapping is the order of the day for the chorus line of senior girls. I) Martian emcees Kenny Webb and Chereene Smith introduce the next act. J) Tuba players get ready to play "Smoke on the Water".

Drama Classes Show Their Acting Ability

This year the two Senior Drama classes and Drama I classes put on a night of one acts. The first play was "Sorry, Wrong Number." It was about an invalid woman who thought her husband was trying to get rid of her. The lead part was played by Karen Bronson.

The second play called "Cop and the Anthem" was about a bum, played by Kevin Evans, who was trying to get thrown into jail for the winter.

"The Lottery," the last one act play, was about a New England town that has a lottery.

The Drama II class put on a three act play called The Haunting of Hill House. The show was put on two nights and a matinee for the students. The student director was Dottie White. The main characters for the play were: Shawn Bonecutter, Vanessa Robinson, Doug Finlayson, John Frank, Debbie Dickson, Debbie Carroll, and Louis Strubhar. The play was about a professor who asked two women to come to a haunted house and see what they could find out about the old house.

A) Doug Finlayson tries to explain a reason for the pounding on the door to Shawn Bonecutter and Vanessa Robinson. B) Telling her theory to her husband, Dr. Montague, is Debbie Carroll. C) Contemplating a brilliant idea is Doug Finlayson. D) The mysterious maid, Debbie Dickson, announces that dinner is ready. E) Telephone operator Cindy Neal tries to calm down a hysterical woman. ## German Club, Teen Team Quiz, and

This year the German Club, under the direction of Mrs. Cicolani, started a new project which proved quite popular with the students. They sold doughnuts before school on Thursday morning.

Students on the Academic Challenge team and the Teen Team Quiz team showed that MHS can hold its own scholastically when they brought home honors. The Academic Challenge team came home from Cleveland after placing a close second in the three way meet. When Channel 2 sponsored the Teen Team Quiz this year, the team of Mike Myers, Keith Christman, and Larry Sqrow, brought the school a check for $750 after winning all their rounds and placing first among all area schools.

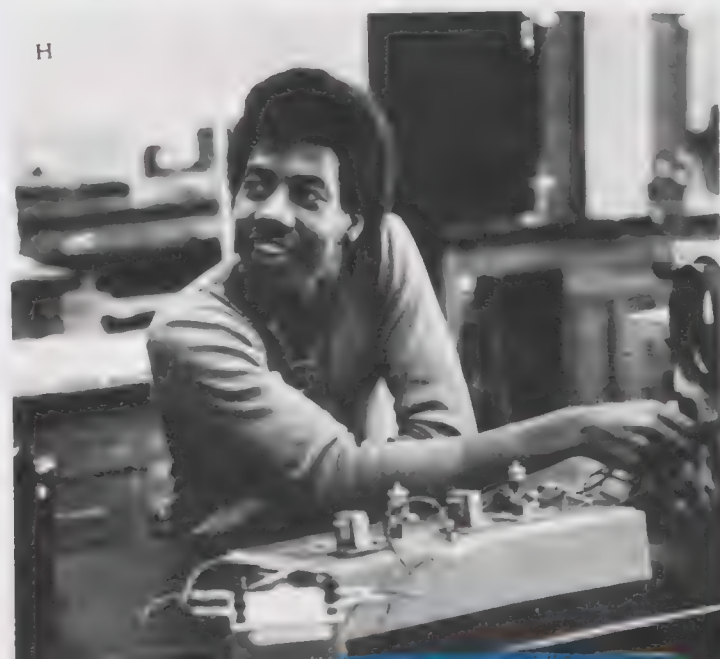

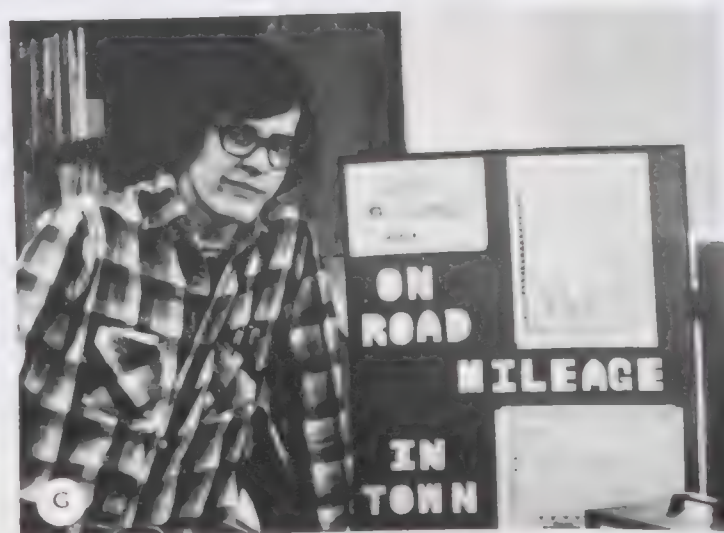

This year's Science Fair was most successful, with many students receiving high ratings. Four students, Matt Pugh, Gail Witter, Scott Hardin, and Jenny Tucker, entered their projects in the State Science Fair, after getting superiors here and at the District Fair.

d Science Fair Bring Honor to MHS

The Chess Club has been able to get students interested in outside activities. They played chess every night after school and held their meetings too.

National Honor Society was based on scholarship, leadership, character and service. This year a new constitution was adopted changing a few of the rules. The MHS National Honor Society, chapter 309, was adopted in 1926. This year students with an average below a B were not eligible to join.

The Key Club sponsored the annual Track Dance and for one of their service projects rang bells at Christmas time for the Salvation Army.

Hi-Y, Y-Teens Help Improve Environment

This year the Hi-Y and Y-Teens had a very successful year at helping in the community and also planning things for their own groups.

The Hi-Y held a car wash, helped to set-up Christmas trees at the Y's-Men's sale at Christmas, participated in civic day, and planned a trip in the spring. The officers were Chad Gumpp, president; Tim Adamescu, vice-president; Karl Schwechheimer, treasurer; Tim Hoover, secretary; and Jim Willis, chaplain.

This year was the first that Y-Teens were all combined into one group. A few of their activities were serving food at a Buffet Banquet held at the Y.W.C.A., holding a fashion show at the Y, planning the "Dating Game", and the seniors planned their trip. The officers were Vanessa Robinson, president; Doris Nabors, vice-president; Shawn Bonecutter, secretary; and Bonnie Mills, treasurer.

E) Charles Williams is honored with the Principal's Award by Mr. Plough. F) Class president Scott Gilbert welcomes guests to the Class Day exercises. G) Coach Flanagan presents the Pete Henry Memorial Award to outstanding athlete Charlie White. H) Mr. Bemiller calls Scott Hardin and Pat Gross to the stage to accept the Michigan Honor Trophy. I) Class advisor Mr. Pugh accepts his gift with a characteristic comment. J) Mr. Plough names Pat Gross class valedictorian.

Seniors Begin Final Class Activities

The Class of 1974 held the first of its final activities on May 23 when seniors gathered to honor graduates who were outstanding in various fields. Many parents, teachers, and guests were present for the Class Day program in the auditorium.

After a very close race that was not determined until final tests were completed, Pat Gross was named valedictorian, while Jeff Gabor and John Lusher shared salutatorian honors. All students in the top ten percent of the class were presented gold cords to be worn at Commencement.

Chosen as outstanding seniors by the Mansfield University Club were Bonnie Mills and Jeff Gabor. Runners-up for the honor were Pat Gross, Vanessa Robinson, Cherene Smith, Debbie Smith, Keith Christman, Scott Gilbert, Phil Glover, and Scott Hardin.

Senior Prom Creates Many Memories

On Friday, May 24, the Senior Prom was held at the Mansfield Leland Hotel. It began with dinner being served in the ballroom, where tables had been set up. Later, tables were cleared and moved back to make space available for dancing. Music was provided by Walt Keppler's band and Larry Rawl's group "Progressive Sound".

Following the formal dance, seniors and their dates changed into more casual clothes and went on to after prom activities. "Lady Sings the Blues" was shown at Cinema I & II, followed by bowling and billiards at Park Lanes.

C) Formally dressed couples wait in the lobby while the bands get set up in the ballroom. D) The photographer catches Heather Dalton's eye, as she dances with her date Scott Gilbert. E) Patty Schoonover and Henry Seiler arrive at the Leland just before dinner is served. F) Couples wait to have their pictures taken by Mr. Smucker. G) Seniors and their guests fill the hotel ballroom for dinner. H) Class advisors, Miss Papenhausen and Mr. Pugh, enjoy their evening with the students outside the classroom.

Seniors Hold Combined Baccalaureate — Commencement

Many relatives, teachers, and friends of the graduating seniors gathered at Arlin Field on Sunday, June 2, to see the diplomas awarded. This year for the first time the traditional Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises were combined into one program.

Following the invocation, Scott Gilbert president of the class, gave the welcome speech. Rev. Alfred Schroeder of St. John's United Church of Christ delivered a message based on knowing and using your resources. Other student speakers were Pat Gross, class valedictorian, and Brenda Petty, president of Student Council.

After diplomas were awarded, the new graduates turned their tassels and marched out to the traditional theme from "Pomp and Circumstance".

A) Senior girls gather for the last time as a class. B) Rick McVicar uses his mortarboard for a little advertisement. C) Shellee Psimerand Ruthann Radabaugh check their places in line. ## A Big Thanks . . .

As editor of this year's Manhigan, I would like to thank the staff for doing such a fine job on the book. Special thanks to Mr. Earl Parks, representative from the American Yearbook Company, for all the help he gave us during the year. Randy Marks also deserves a big thanks for designing the cover.

The staff photographer Heather Dalton and her assistant Tim Adamescu did a fine job of covering the events during the year. We are also indebted to Smucker's Studio for taking pictures and developing and printing most of our work. Other pictures were furnished by the Mansfield News-Journal.

I also want to acknowledge Mr. Au and the business staff and thank them for all their work getting advertisements, and selling and distributing books.

In conclusion, I want to wish next year's staff the best of luck.

Gorman-Rupp congratulates....

Everyone at Gorman-Rupp takes this opportunity to compliment the graduating seniors on a job well done. From this milestone on, what you do and what you accomplish will depend largely on you. Lay your plans and then make them happen. With your plans go all our wishes for success and happiness in the years ahead.
